INDEX NO.: 2821/2000
MOTION
DATE: 7/21/06

The following documents numbered 1 to 10 read on this motion by Defendant Sunbow Production Inc. To reargue the Order of this Court dated June 15, 2006.

Notice of Motion- Affidavits 1, 2,

Briefs: Plaintiff

Defendant

Motion is decided as follows:

Defendant alleges the Court overlooked the fact that the signed contracts contain an integration or merger clause that states that the written agreement is the "entire" agreement. Thus Defendant objects to the Courts holding that Plaintiff's contention that there were oral agreements as well as written agreements are matters which Plaintiff must prove at trial.

In opposition Plaintiff alleges the integration clauses do not refer to all contracts between the parties. Plaintiff has "accepted the JEM Agreement as has Sunbow as outlining the terms of the Sunbow relationship." This agreement applies to songs for 65 episodes. The oral agreements, refer to the Transformers Themes, Inhumanoids, or Visionaries Music for which there is no written agreement.

The Court has reviewed all affidavits and exhibits presented. Defendant's motion to reargue is granted. However, the order of this Court dated June 15, 2006 remains in full force and effect.

This constitutes the order of the Court.

Re: Anne Bryant v BMI, etc.
2821/2002
5192/2000

Dear Councillors:

At the request of Ms. Phares I am writing to tell you what I expect to be the next order of business in the above matter. The Court's latest decision was amplified by our recent telephone conversation.

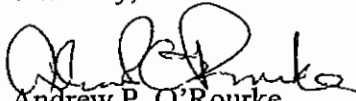

The Court has already found that there were "written and valid signed contracts between Plaintiff and Defendant, Sunbow." Defendant has presented evidence that said written contracts were the only way Defendant, Sunbow, operated with the artists it employed. If Plaintiff intends to now say there were oral contracts, it is up to her to prove this especially in the face of the integration or merger clauses.

In view of the Appellate Division's decisions I believe it is necessary for us to conclude this case. This matter is still on the Plaintiff case and thus that case must go forward. Ms. Bryant's testimony must be finished. Plaintiff has stated that it was also to call an expert.

At the end of the Plaintiff's case the Court will decide if a prima facie case has been made, if not, it will dismiss the Plaintiff's case. If the case had been made by Plaintiff, Defendant will then proceed.

Both sides will be given adequate Court time to make their case or defense. Apparently, by agreement of the parties, the case will continue during the week of December 4th, 2006.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Andrew P. O'Rourke". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "A" and "P".

The following documents numbered 1 to 8 were read on this motion by Defendant Sunbow Productions, Inc. for judgment under CPLR § 4401 and Plaintiff Bryant's cross-motion for judgment under CPLR § 4401 and for reference to a Special Master on the issue of damages under CPLR § 4301 et seq.

Although this Court by its Decision dated June 12, 2006 stated that "this case must go on..." and set forth the Court's view of what needed to be presented, the parties have persisted in making this motion and cross-motion.

After a telephone conversation between the parties on July 7, 2006, the Court was asked to clarify its above cited decision, which it did by letter dated August 10, 2006. That letter (a copy of which is attached) set forth the Court's views about what remained to be decided.

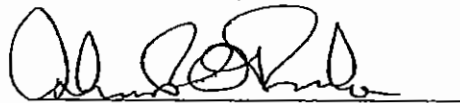

The Defendants' motion to dismiss, if at all made, should be offered after the Plaintiff's case is concluded. It is obvious that the Court intended for the Plaintiff to have her day in Court.

The motion and cross-motion of the parties have been made before and denied by this Court. All relief requested is also denied herein as to both parties.

There will be no further motions by either side prior to our December 4th trial continuation date without permission of the Court.

Parties are reminded that the Court requested a "witness list, including the subject matter of such witnesses and approximate times involved" as of the June 12, 2006 decision. As of date neither party has provided same. Such lists will be forwarded to the Court within 10 days from date hereof.

This constitutes the order of the Court.

Re: Bryant v. Sunbow, Index No. 2821/02
Bryant v. BMI, et al., Index No. 5192/00

Dear Mr. Monaghan:

I am enclosing the Sony/ATV royalty reports that should have accompanied the payment that Sunbow recently made to Anne Bryant. These reports reflect royalties that Sunbow has always conceded are due to her pursuant to the Kinder & Bryant agreement and her arrangements with various international performing rights societies, many of which collect performance royalties and remit them to Sony/ATV. These reports are the same as those that Sunbow has produced in the past and which Bryant has produced to Sunbow and has had admitted into evidence. See, e.g., Plaintiff's Exhibit 19. Please note these statements contain payments for other artists as well. The recent payment reflects the total of the amounts stated for Ms. Bryant in these five reports.

Although we can understand why you might want to use this payment and the royalty statements to divert the parties' attention from the business of the upcoming trial, neither the payment nor the statements have any bearing on Ms. Bryant's burden of showing that she had an oral agreement with Sunbow that co-existed with the written agreements she concedes governed all her relations with Sunbow and which contained merger clauses forbidding oral amendments.

Sincerely yours,
